

The Story Project

Learning from Community Stories

Young people's crisis-response behaviours and actions

The Story Project: Learning from Community Stories is an EU project funded under the Youth Education Sector of the Erasmus+ programme. A consortium of 6 organisations from 4 different European countries works together to create a model and a series of creative workshops based on storytelling to help young people become more resilient and enhance their intercultural competences and creative potential. The Story Project steps up to put young people's voices at the heart of decision making and enable them to be part of the solution in the aftermath of the Covid-19 crisis.

OUTPUTS

- STORYTELLERS' LEAGUE: develops a model - methodology and a series of creative workshops based on storytelling linked to community resilience in response to Covid-19.
- YOUTH COMMUNITIES' VOICE: produces a set of digital stories - short films of the most impactful stories, identified within the "Storytellers' league" workshops.

EXPECTED RESULTS

FOR YOUNG PEOPLE

- enhance their creative potential
- improve their knowledge, skills, attitudes and intercultural understanding
- increase their capacity in social activism and crisis-response behaviours
- improve their social and intercultural competences
- improve their media literacy and skills

FOR YOUTH WORKERS / EDUCATORS

- gain insight into current youth outreach methods
- enhance their competences in delivering innovative community capacity building training
- receive methodological guidance regarding youth community development in culture, creativity, and resident leadership
